

STATE FIRE MARSHAL DIVISION STUDENT DRESS CODE POLICY

It is your responsibility to use good judgment in selecting clothing that projects a professional image and is appropriate for both climate differences and classroom activities. Division staff and course instructors have the authority to make a determination that your clothing is inappropriate. If they do so, you will be required to change into more appropriate clothing before being allowed to continue class.

In routine classroom settings, appropriate business casual attire includes:

- Slacks or khakis (below the calf or longer); Capri pants.
- Jeans (newer, dress or fashion type without rips or tears).
- Suits or blazers.
- Shirts with collars; polo or denim shirts.
- Turtlenecks, sweaters.
- Skirts/Dresses/Blouses
  - Skirts and dresses must be no shorter than 3 inches above the knee.
  - Blouses and dresses – no backless or low-cut (sleeveless blouses and dresses must have 3-4 inches of material covering the shoulder).
  - Denim skirts or dresses.
- Dress or casual shoes, open-toed shoes.

What you can't wear

- Shorts.
- Tank tops.
- Overalls.
- T-shirts with slogans and/or without sleeves.
- Flip-flops.
